International Sports Tours
Customized Programs for All Sports

How about away games on another continent?

It's where you haven't played before.

It's where you haven't been tested yet.

It's where you show them what your team is made of.

It's where you see yourself in new competition.

It's where your opponents see themselves in you.

It's where you realize home and away games are always played on common ground.

Sports are for everyone, all over the globe.
Let's go play in a different part of the world.

WorldStrides Sports delivers a level of quality that is defined by expert service, top-class support, and industry-leading global reach.

Our experience is at your service

Since 1998, WorldStrides Sports has helped sports teams from across North America travel all over the world to challenge new opponents and make new friends. From youth clubs to Olympic development teams to NCAA programs, WorldStrides unites athletes of all ages in the spirit of camaraderie and international competition.

Our talent for crafting customized travel programs has earned us a reputation as the leader in organizing sports tours. There's good reason why youth clubs and college champions choose us to facilitate friendly games, tournament play, stadium tours, and tickets to professional matches. We have the contacts and networking swagger to get you and your team on the right field, with the right facilities, against the right competition, with all the right extras, in the country of your choice.

Club support every step of the way

The United Kingdom. Spain. Italy. Germany. Wherever you want to go, we can take you there.

Like the games themselves, we know from players and coaches around the world that sports have different approaches and styles. That's why our sports and travel knowledge goes beyond the field of play—we know how systems work in different countries, on other continents. From the ins and outs of player and team qualifications to ensuring that games meet the rules of the regional governing bodies that sanction them, we navigate the landscape so you can focus on preparing your team.

Our travel know-how is fully at your service, too. Logistics, lodging, athlete-friendly team meals, group transportation, practice facilities, cultural tours—you name it, we've got you covered. We're delighted to manage every detail of your overall experience, so that it's nothing short of world-class.

The power of international travel

With passport in hand, embarking on an international playing tour means that you are not just a representative of the game, you are an ambassador of your club, your town, your community, and your country. And it's a feeling not easily forgotten. What could be more exciting for any player, at any age or skill level?

The reasons for traveling abroad are abundant: team bonding, chemistry building, individual growth, quality play, getting to know players from another part of the world, picking up new skills and insights along the way, and more.

The UK is the most popular destination for our soccer tours, and as home of the Premier League—the largest soccer league in the world—it's easy to see why. Enthusiasm for the game is everywhere you go. Stadiums are honored like cathedrals. Team colors are worn with pride. The modern game was born here, and stars from around the world come here to play.

International tours for every game with a ball, stick, club, puck, or basket

Perhaps more amazing than the global reach of sports is its diversity, and today's player has more choices than ever when it comes to matching a game to their own passions and skills. And once that match is made, it can be hard to imagine doing anything else.

SOCCER

Simply put, the world's most popular sport is played everywhere, but how it's played in different parts of the world varies greatly. Will your tour include a personal view of 'jaga bonito,' exposure to the Bundesliga, or the influences of La Liga or Serie A coaching and tactics? Tough call, isn't it?

Popular destinations: UK, Spain, Italy, Portugal, and Germany

RUGBY

Dating from 19th century England, this sport's popularity continues to rise across North America. Your team will find impressive competition across the pond as well as incredible opportunities for both strategic and personal growth.

Popular destinations: England, Scotland, and Ireland

BASKETBALL

The international stage for this American-born sport grows increasingly more fanatic every year. The NBA's wingspan reaches across the world, and more and more international clubs long to compete against North American teams at every age and level.

Popular destinations: Italy, Spain, Costa Rica, and Greece

GOLF

Tee it up at some of the world's most famous courses and enjoy a multi-day Ryder Cup format tournament, along with practice rounds and plenty of time to sightsee throughout your host country.

Popular destinations: Scotland, Ireland, and England

LACROSSE

Dominated by U.S. and Canadian teams for decades, word is getting out across the continents about the excitement of lacrosse, especially in the UK and Australia. With 47 countries included in the FIL, teams outside of North America are not only on the rise, so is the talent.

Popular destinations: UK, Ireland, and Australia

Sport is an exercise in culture

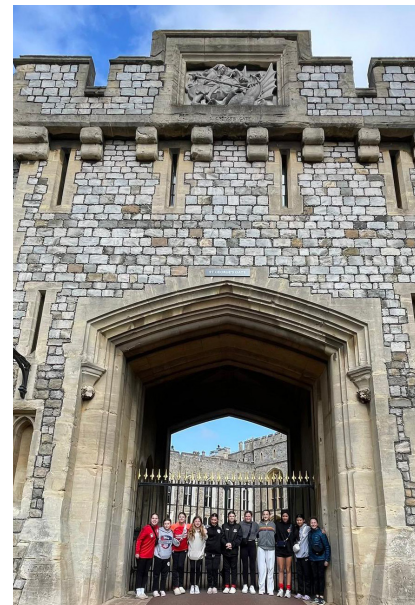

No game is complete until the people who love it bring it to life, and learning about the cultures that bring your sport to life solidifies a common bond between you and the country you're visiting. It also teaches the team that the influence of sports goes well beyond a stadium. Isn't this why you want to travel in the first place?

Sports are a part of life, no doubt. So what about the other parts?

Whether you're tasting the local cuisine, touring national landmarks, taking in museums, or simply enjoying a walkabout, the exposure to a new culture on a person at any age, and any stage in life, leaves an indelible mark—and our tours include plenty of opportunities to expand and inspire the global perspectives of both players and coaches.

From sports to culture to sports culture, all WorldStrides Sports programs are crafted to deliver the most well-rounded experience for your team. And you won't find an international sports tour with higher quality or higher impact anywhere else.

Spain's national football team is the only team in history to win THREE consecutive major international tournaments! They achieved this incredible feat by winning the UEFA Euro 2008 Championship, the 2010 FIFA World Cup, and the UEFA Euro 2012 Championship. This cemented Spain's position as a dominant force in international football during that era.

"We couldn't have been happier with the assistance that WorldStrides provided our basketball team on our recent foreign tour. The company and our representatives were totally committed to providing our student-athletes a great experience on the trip. They had great communication with us and were attentive to our requests. We look forward to continuing a partnership with WorldStrides for our next foreign tour."
